

Colloquium Series

The School of Library and Information Science invites you to:

"Google for Librarians"

A Colloquium with Dan Martin

Google Washington Office

Where: CUA, 132 Marist Hall (Information Commons)

When: Wednesday, February 24, 6:00 p.m.

Google for Librarians will present advanced tips and tricks for how to work smarter and faster online. We'll focus on how to better use Google's tools to be more efficient and effective in your research, and will answer your questions about all things Google.

About the Speaker:

Dan Martin joined Google's Washington, D.C. office in 2007 as a company spokesperson. He oversees the company's Public Policy Blog and leads Google's communications efforts on issues including telecommunications policy, immigration, patent reform, and cyber-security.

For further information contact David Shumaker, Clinical Associate Professor, shumaker@cua.edu

Note regarding accommodations: Please contact David Shumaker by February 17 to request accommodations for individuals with disabilities. This includes the need for materials in an alternative format (i.e. large print or Braille), Sign Language Interpreters, accessible seating, and parking information.