

Spring 2025 Comps Exam Questions

Question 1.

How have the technological competencies required of librarians and information professionals evolved in recent decades? Discuss how these competencies currently enhance the capabilities of information organizations in managing collections and delivering services.

Question 2.

Select a library or information center and explore the benefits and challenges of fostering engagement between the institution and its community, based on the values and principles of Library and Information Science. Describe two effective strategies employed to promote community involvement, detailing their specific impacts and successes.